Grounds

The undersigned agrees to abide by the following conditions:

- Renter/Photographer waives and releases all claims against the Howard County Historical Society ("HCHS"), its trustees, officers, employees and agents for any damage to person or property arising from the exercise of the privileges granted by this agreement, and agrees to hold harmless and indemnify HCHS and its trustees, officers, employees and agents from any such claim.
- Renter/Photographer must take all reasonable precautions to protect HCHS property used hereunder, including all natural, cultural and physical resources, and shall not alter, remove, damage or destroy any such property or resources.
- Renter/Photographer shall make restitution to HCHS to compensate for any damage to any property or resources. The amount of restitution will be determined by HCHS.
- Renter/Photographer agrees that use of HCHS facilities for filming or photography does not constitute HCHS endorsement of any product, film, organization, cause, or other entity, and Renter/Photographer shall not imply or in any way represent such endorsement.
- Renter/Photographer shall remove all equipment, material, trash, or debris brought by or generated by Renter/Photographer on HCHS property at the end of rental.
- Nothing herein grants the Renter/Photographer the right to use the HCHS, Seiberling or Elliott House name, marks, or symbols without HCHS advance written permission.
